FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

AUSTRIAN ACCOUNT
Of the Battles fought on the 14th, 15th, and 16th, near Wetzlar, and at Altemberg.

WETZLAR, JUNE 17.

On the 14th there were only ſkirmiſhes without any formal attack, yet the French were repulſed from Wehrdorf, Berghauſen, Dillheim and Kezenſont; all theſe places ſuffered greatly by their retreat.

On the 15th, affairs began to wear a more ſerious aſpect. The French informed of the reinforcements, arrived for the Imperialiſts on the Lahn and Dill, intended to force the centre of the imperialiſts, which expedition General Le Febvre undertook with 25,000 men. He is the ſame who command the laſt expedition of laſt year in this quarter, and is perfectly acquainted with the country. On the 15th in the forenoon, he attacked the imperialiſts at Berghauſen, Wehrdorf, and puſhed his forces forwards through the woods near thoſe places. The Auſtrian Grenadiers, the regiment of Huſſars, Veczay, and the Saxon Chaſſeurs, juſt arrived, attacked the enemy; but the French annoyed theſe troops conſiderably, by maſked batteries erected from Leun to Altenſtetten, firing grape ſhot, whereby the Saxon Chaſſeurs ſuffered ſeverely. Field Marſhal, Lieutenant de Werneck advanced with the remainder of his troops, poſted behind our city; the cannonade became frightful, the Imperialiſts on ſeveral points were obliged to give way, the rain and weather not being in their favour. We lived in anxiety, and a retreat appeared to be unavoidable; ſo matters ſtood at 7 in the evening, when unexpectedly and like a ſaviour from Heaven, arrived the Archduke Charles, and haſtened in full gallop to the field of battle. During the moſt terrible fire of grape ſhot, he rode through the ranks and encouraged the troops, by aſſuring them that reinforcements were drawing near. The Imperialiſts now perſevered with unexampled bravery. A few moments paſt Imperial troops arrived from Weilmuenſter and Neumheim, filing off to Konigſberg. At the ſame time the brave Saxon troops marched by Rechtenbach to the field of battle, and more cannon arrived, which the Imperialiſts ſtood in need of. Now they attempted to decoy the enemy foom his woods; but in vain. Then the Imperialiſts erected two batteries in oppoſition, and commenced a violent cannonade. The Imperial and Saxon cavalry turned the woods, the infantry charged the batteries with bayonets and ſtormed the cavalry ranged in the woods, when the French were obliged to retire; and by 10 at night victory decided for the Auſtrians. On both ſides many were killed and wounded, The grape ſhot did much execution among the Imperialiſts. The Saxons performed prodigies of valour, and to them the victory is principally owing. Many priſoners are not bro't in yet, among them is a colonel of cavalry wounded. Twelve cannon were taken. A lieutenant of the Saxon Chaſſeurs, the firſt who penetrated into the woods, was taken priſoner, and was found afterwards with his throat cut.

Yeſterday the 16th the attack was renewed and the French driven from Lenn, Stockhouſe, and Weilbourgh. The huſſars of Blankenſtein croſſed the Lahn near Overbuehl, made many priſoners, and took a cannon.

General Lefebvre had his hand cut off by a Saxon horſeman, and his brother was killed by the muſquetry.

[illegible] letters from [illegible] that they were promiſed to der Frankfort, if they could pen[illegible] to that place. This at firſt occaſioned great alarm amongſt the inhabitants. Thus Wetzlar, Franckfort and their envirous were ſaved.

It was neceſſary to haſten the arrival of 9,000 Saxons, by an expreſs; the Archduke led them himſelf to the battle.

From Dillenburg the huſſars bro't in yeſterday a French commiſſary and ſeven chaſſeurs, upon whom they found 200 louis d'ors.

This day the whole Imperial army paſſes the Lahn in purſuit of the enemy, the loſs of which is ſaid to be 3000 men.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 18.

This day we are informed that the Auſtrians after the moſt obſtinate reſiſtance overthrew the left wing of the French at Greiffenſtein above Wetzlar, when upwards of 1000 priſoners were taken, the right wing hvaing already recroſſed the Rhine at Nieuwied.

Nine at Night.

An eſtafette at this moment arrived with the news that the head quarters of the Archduke Charles were this morning at Hackenbourg, the advanced poſts of the Imperial army are already before Altenkirchen. The retreat of the French is very rapid. Several pieces of cannon, powder, waggons, and baggage, have already been taken from them.

A part of the French army has already paſſed the Sieg, on its retreat.

General Lefebvre has had his hand cut off by a Saxon horſeman, and his brother killed. The report that the General was taken priſoner is not confirmed.

According to accounts received here this day, one column of the army of Jourdan is paſſing the Rhine at Nenwied, and the remainder retreating to Duſſeldorff. The greater part of the army of the Archduke is advancing beyond the Lahn. The communication is now open with Ehretbreiſten; the blockade of which is raiſed.

PARIS, JUNE 20.

The report of an armiſtice, and an approaching peace with Auſtria, which have lately been in circulation, have no foundation. The 30th Priarial, June 18, was the day fixed for a general battle between the armies on the Rhine. We expect the moſt important conſequences from that battle, which muſt decide whether we ſhall really have peace, or muſt continue the war—(Le Batave.)

General Jourdan has effected his junction with the army of the Rhine and the Moſelle.

The Prince of Wirtemberg was very near being taken priſoner in one of the late engagements. He owed his ſafety to his horſe.

Salicetti, the Commiſſary of the Directory, has addreſſed a letter to the Grand Duke of Tuſcany, demanding a free paſſage for our troops through his territories.

JUNE 21.

The re-appearance of Cambaceres in the Tribune has been received with general approbation. The period of his retreat and ſilence has not been loſt to the public good; he has been employed in preparing a Civil Code, a work of great extent and infinite importance; it is now in the preſs.

The public curioſity has carried crouds to the bridge of the Revolution, to ſee a veſſel of three maſts, armed with 14 cannon called the Saumon.—We conclude that Government is ſeriouſly engaged in facilitating the navigation between Havre and Paris.—The lugger had on board two engineers for the neceſſary obſervations. the Pariſians ſoon hope to ſee the Breſt ſquadron on the Seine.

[illegible] the Council of Five Hundred, authoriſed the [illegible] Meſſidor, (June 28th.)

"Citizens Repreſentatives, the retreat of General Jourdan was merely a ſtratagem, to draw to that ſide all the forces of the enemy. It has ſucceeded, and facilitated to the gallant army of the Rhine and Moſelle the paſſage of the Rhine, which it has effected in three columns, with the moſt brilliant ſucceſs. The fort of Kehl is in our poſſeſſion; we made uſe of the enemy's cannon to take it, and the bridge before Straſburgh is repaired. The Directory will ſtate, in the official Journals, the particulars which attended the paſſage, and the heroic actions of our gallant ſoldiers in this important expedition.

CARNOT."

JULY 4.

The following are the Conditions of a ſuſpenſion of hoſtilities, which has been agreed on between Gen. Buonaparte and Prince Belmonte Pignattelli, envoy from the Court of Naples to the Court of Madrid.

Art. I. All hoſtilities ſhall ceaſe between the troops of the French republic and thoſe of the King of Naples, on the day on which the following articles ſhall be executed, until ten days after the official annunciation of the concluſion of the negociation for peace, which ſhall be opened between the reſpective plenipotentiaries, at a place to be appointed by the executive directory.

II. The body of Neapolitan troops, now acting with thoſe of the Emperor, ſhall be withdrawn, and cantoned in the places hereafter ſpecified.

III. The Corps being compriſed in the ſuſpenſion of arms, ſhall go into cantonments in the Venetian territory of Breſcia, Crema and Bergamo.

IV. The ſaid ſuſpenſion of arms ſhall extend to the fleets of the two powers, and meanwhile, the ſhips of the King of Naples ſhall be withdrawn, as ſoon as poſſible from the Engliſh fleet.

V. A free paſſage, as well through the French territories, as through the country occupied by the French troops, and through the Neapolitan Dominion, ſhall be granted to the Couriers of both powers.

Letter from General Buonaparte to the Executive Directory.

Head-Quarters at Piſtoja, June 26.

Prince Pignatelli, Citizen Directors, is juſt arrived at this place, with inſtructions from his court, who has accepted the armiſtice. An order will be ſent off this day, to the commander in chief of the Neapolitan cavalry, to leave the Auſtrian army. This plenipotentiary is to ſet out for Paris tomorrow.

BUONAPARTE.

Letter from General Buonaparte to the Executive Directory.

Head Quarters at Piſtoja, June 26.

I have encloſed, Citizen Directors, a copy of the armiſtice concluded with the Pope.

The legation of Bologna is one of the richeſt parts of the papal territories; you cannot have an idea of the hatred which prevails here againſt the domination of the Pope.

The Citadel of Ancona gives us a command over the Adriatic Gulph; We have taken in the forts of Urbino, Ferrara, and Bologna nearly two hundred pieces of braſs cannon, from 7 to 8000 fuſees and a certain quantity of ammunition and proviſions.

[illegible] Ferguſon [illegible] Directory.

Head Quarters at Piſtoja, June 27.

An armiſtice has juſt been concluded with the Pope: we have not neglected to profit by the alarms which prevailed at Rome to render this treaty advantageous to the Republic.

Bologna and Ferrara remain in the power of the army who are about to be put in poſſeſſion of the citadel of Ancona.

Among the pictures, buſts, and ſtatues which we are to have from Rome, we have demanded the buſts of Marcus and Junius Brutus. Men of ſcience are employed in collecting the rich ſpoil of ſciencific Italy.

A plenipotentiary from Rome will ſoon be at Paris, to negociate with you a definitive Treaty of Peace.

Alexandria, September 6.

Arrived on Saturday the ſhip Pomona, Captain Haywood, from Cadiz, which he left the laſt of July. The verbal accounts by the Pomona correſpond with the intelligence in our laſt from Cadiz, by the way of New-York. War with England was the general topic of converſation, which every day ſeemed to render more probable. Admiral Richery was ſtill in Cadiz, but it was rumored that the French looked for ſpeedy relief from a Dutch fleet of ſuperior force to the ſquadron under Admiral Mann, who has ſo long paſt kept them blockaded.—The time for the payment of the ſum ſtipulated by treaty between this country and the the Dey of Algiers expired ſix days before Captain Haywood ſailed from Cadiz, and the veſſel diſpatched with it had not then arrived. It is feared this circumſtance may endanger the liberty and property of ſome of our citizens.

Captain Haywood fell in with a ſquadron off the Capes, under the command of Admiral Murray. He was boarded by the firſt lieutenant of the Admiral's ſhip, who informed him they had been two days in chaſe of three French frigates, under the command of Captain Barney, one of which they captured.

The ſhip Friends Adventure, Captain Caldwell, of Baltimore, arrived at Cadiz from Lisbon the 25th of July.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the Havannah, to his correſpondent in Philadelphia dated Auguſt 10.

"Captain Barney, with 3 frigates 2 of 44 and 1 of 32 guns, came to an anchor at the Ponto on the 8th inſt. from Cape Francois, it is ſaid to wait for the Jamaica convoy;—but, from the information we have had, they have 4 ſhips of the line and 3 frigates, ſo that he will ſtand but a poor chance.

Since he left France, he has captured 56 veſſels; 5 or 6 of them ſailing under certificates of property; thoſe he ſet fire to; and has publicly declared here he will do ſo in every inſtance. which is poor encouragement for the Americans to purchaſe prizes from them. One of them was a brig of T. and P. Mackey's, from Malaga. Andrew Paden maſter, who was murdered, the ſecond day after they ſailed, by the mate and crew, and a conſiderable ſum of money that was on board divided among them:—Thoſe people capt Barney delivered to the government at the Cape for trial."

On the firſt of June the Senate negatived the following reſolution 11 to 10.

Reſolved, That the Hon. William Blount and William Cocke, Eſquires, who have produced credentials of being duly elected Senators for the State of Tenneſſee, be admitted to take the oath neceſſary for their qualification, and take their ſeats accordingly.

The reaſon given by the members who debated in the negative was, that the credentials of William Blount and William Cocke, bore date prior to the act of Congreſs, which admitted Tenneſſe a Member of the Union.

At a General aſſembly held for the ſtate of Tenneſſee, ſince the above reſolution was paſſed, William Blount and William Cocke have again been elected, to repreſent the State, in the Senate of the United States.

The Executive Directory have informed the people of France, that the retrogade movement of General Jourdan were—preconcerted. See a Letter from Carnot under the Paris head.

M. Pache, formerly Mayor of Paris, mentioned upon the authority of the Engliſh miniſterial prints, as having been taken up in that country turns out to be a M. Le Page from St. Domingo, member of the Conſtituent Aſſembly. Upon diſcovering the miſtake he was immediately ſet at liberty.

Mr. Gibbon, in his Hiſtory, ſays, that the time was when the Pope could trim up all the parſons in Europe, ſo as to make every pulpit in Chriſtendom reſound with the ſame air, like the leader of an orcheſtra. The time, however, was now paſſed away like, "a tale told by an ideot!"—It is literally forgotten.

Philip Parry Price, Middleton, proprietor of a large tract of land on the Ohio, has been lately convicted in in London, of enticing artificers to emigrate to the United States, and ſentenced to pay a fine of 500l. ſterling, and to be confined in the priſon of Newgate for one year. Mr. Price had been impriſoned previouſly upwards of 6 months—he had engaged labourers and cultivators to the number of 1300, the greater part of whom have ſince arrived in ſeveral parts of the United States.

Captain Marſhall, who went out of Baltimore in the ſhip Unicorn, was executed at Cape Francois on the 16th ult.

Seven ſailors and the mate of the brig Philadelphia, who had murdered their captain at ſea, and who were afterwards captured by commodore Barney, were executed with Marſhall.

The Governor of St. Vincents has iſſued a proclamation dated the 19th of July, allowing the free importation into the iſland of American produce in American bottoms, for the period of 6 months.

Fifteen American veſſels, were at Leogane, about the firſt of Auguſt under libel—and waiting for trial. They were taken under inſtructions for capturing veſſels bound to Engliſh ports in Hiſpaniola. Thus when the Bermudians are actually reforming and quitting their infamous trade; we find the French degenerating and taking up the ſame piratical buſineſs; with even leſs coloring in general caſes. Many of the veſſels detained by the Bermudians were from French ports; that had been for a long time declared in a ſtate of blockade—whether they actually were ſo or not—but the St. Domingo French, have no pretence of the kind, either nominal or otherwiſe. It is uncertain what fate may attend the above American veſſels; but if the republicans carried them in merely to ſecure to their ports the proviſions they might have on board—they would releaſe them after their arrival—without any form of trial. The libeling of the veſſels, however, renders it probable ſomething ſerious is deſigned againſt them.

FROM THE NORFOLK HERALD.

MESS. PRINTERS,

YOU will inform the Public of the treatment we have met with from our brother citizens of Leogane, in the iſland of St. Domingo. The undermentioned veſſels were captured during the firſt ten days of Auguſt, by French privateers: and on the 10th inſt. there were fifteen ſail of Americans taken into that port.

The following veſſels, with their cargo, are condemned.

Brig Triton, Flinn, Philadelphia, condemned veſſel and cargo;
Brig Eliza, Whitfield, Wilmington;
Sch'r Ann, Gibbs, Boſton; Sch'r Juno, Burgeſs.

REMAINING FOR TRIAL

Sloop Sincerity, Boyd, Philadelphia; Sch'r Delia, Higgins, do. Brig Experience, Huſton, do. Sch'r Bride, Probert, do. Brig Glaſgow, Le Codwin, New-York: Brig Induſtry, Maſſey, Boſton; Brig Alithea, Ham, George-Town; Sloop Johanna, Hunt, Providence, R. I. Sloop Britannia, Young, North Yarmouth; brig Charlotte, King, New-York; and a ſchoorer name forgot.

The pretence for condemnation is, "that they were bound to Britiſh ports, in the iſland of Hiſpaniola, which the French have declared to be in a ſtate of blockade." They are determined to take and condemn all Americans ſo bound, wherever they can fall in with them. No Americans are ſuffered to go on ſhore till their veſſels are condemned, under a penalty of being impriſoned. Several of the Americans were confined for going aſhore

By the Hamburgh Packet, capt. Clay, from Liverpool, we learn that general Tarleton, diſtinguiſhed during the American war, was elected to repreſent that city in the Britiſh parliament.

At the cloſe of the above election, the general was chaired through that city in triumph—a large body of the ſhip carpenters who ſupported the general, carried a flag, repreſenting the general on horſeback, trampling on the American colours.

The Americans in that port took notice of that tranſaction and capt. Rodgers, of the Jane, of Baltimore, with another citizen, proceeded to the Huſtings, and demanded an explanation of the general who appointed to meet them at the committee room the ſame evening; they attendedaccordingly, and the committee for conducting general Tarleton's election concured in diſapproving of the flag, and ſatisfied the citizens by declaring that it ſhould be eraſed.

A number of American ſeamen celebrating the national feſtival, commemorative of American independence, on the 4th of July, paraded the ſtreets of Liverpool, ſhouting "Waſhington and Liberty," were attacked by a numerous body of ſhipcarpenters, and beaten and abuſed in a cruel manner.

MARTINSBURG, SEPT 1.

Monday evening laſt a very diſtreſſing cataſtrophe took place at Bath; an altercation having taken place between Mr George Thomas and Captain R Blackburn, the latter ſuddenly and raſhly drew a dirk and thruſt it into the body of the former, which put an end to his exiſtence in the ſpace of 4 or 5 minutes after. Capt. Blackburn was apprehened the day following and committed to jail. The various and contradictory reports as to the circumſtances of this melancholy tranſaction, induces us to defer attempting particulars, until we obtain them from the evidence which will be produced before a ſpecial court to be held here, for the purpoſe of an examination, on Tueſday next.

WINCHESTER SEPT. 2.

It is with a degree of ſorrow ſeldom experienced by the editor hereof, that he enters upon the recital of the following melancholy event—A few days ago an unhappy diſpute took place at Bath, between a Captain Randolph and another gentleman, whoſe name we have not heard; that a challenge was ſent by the latter to the former, of which a captain Thomas was the bearer; that Capt. R. refuſed the challenge, and threw the note on the ground, ſignifying at the ſame time, that he did not think his opponent upon an equality with him. The behaviour of Capt. R. irritated Capt. Thomas, who alſo dared him to combat, which was refuſed by the former on the ſame ſcore. A day or two afterwards, Capt. Thomas was boaſting in company that he had frightened ſome of the continentals—This behaviour drew down the vengeance of Major Blackburn, who very unfortunately happened to be preſent—his reſentment knew no bounds—he aſſailed Capt. Thomas, and (Oh! that we could break off here, but alas! the ſequel, mournful as it is, muſt be diſcloſed) with a dirk put a period to his exiſtence. The unhappy Major Blackburn is committed to priſon in Martinſburg.

CORDAGE.

Of various ſizes, and of the beſt quality, for ſale by J. G. LADD.

Auguſt 23.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not leſs than ſeven, or more than eleven years, from the firſt day of September next. The Mill houſe is 42 by 40 feet, three ſtories high, built with ſtone, and has in it 3 pair of French burr ſtons, two overſhot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and neceſſary for carrying on the buſineſs with diſpatch, and at as little expence as poſſible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where crafts of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Waſhington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This ſituation aided by a ſufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extenſive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the diſtance to it being from 8 to 10 miles leſs, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premiſſes a large ſtone Cooper's ſhop, a ſtone granery and a commodious Miller's houſe. At the landing aforeſaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardneſs and probably will be finiſhed the enſuing Fall.

There are alſo on the premiſes a Brewery and Diſtillery built with ſtone, in them are three ſtills, two coppers or boilers, with every neceſſary article, all new, and in good order, and ſufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Diſtillery, upon a very extenſive plan. This property I will rent for the ſame term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premiſes, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with eaſe and diſpatch, is an immenſe quantity of building and foundation ſtones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with eaſe, the ſtone taken from theſe quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other ſtone brought to it. I will rent theſe quarries ſeperately or together as may beſt ſuit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a ſtone Dwelling houſe, large enough for the accommodation of a family, alſo, a kitchen, Dairy, ſmoke houſe, &c. and a garden encloſed, and in cultivation, the ſoil of which is equal in goodneſs to any in this ſtate. I will alſo rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Diſtillery is a Smith's ſhop in which is a complete ſet of Blackſmith's tools, which I will alſo rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blackſmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the ſtone quarries, I will ſell three crafts which were built for the purpoſe of carrying ſtone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate poſſeſſion will be given, for terms apply to the ſubſcriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Diſtillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and muſt be ſo returned, at the expiration of the leaſe or leaſes.

This tract contains thirteen hundred and twenty ſeven acres, is well timbered, the ſoil of an excellent quality for farming, and has a large proportion of fine meadow ground. There is a never failing ſtream of water running thro' the land with a good mill ſeat on it. It is clear of all incumbrances, and an indiſputeable title will be made to the purchaſer, who, by paying a part of the purchaſe money in hand, may have a long credit, and eaſy payments, for the ballance, for terms apply to Col.
